It poses a two-way challenge before the institute to first groom them and bring them up to the mark, and secondly, to identify opportunities for them.
- The institute needs to identify and implement faculty- exchange or student- exchange programs, which aids the learning process.
- The limited source of funds and the ideals which the institution upholds creates a great challenge to cater the varied needs of the students in an increasingly consumerist society.
- With its existing affiliations, it becomes impossible for the institute to design and offer the up-coming industry-oriented course modules for increasing the chances of employability of its students.
- As per the requirements of the industry, the institute finds it challenging to provide them with the human resources possessing the required skill-set, as the institute does not have any control over the admission process.

2.5.1 How does the institution ensure that the stakeholders of the institution especially students and faculty are aware of the evaluation processes?

- YCOM follows a well-structured evaluation process, wherein students & faculties are evaluated on a continuous basis.
- At the time of induction of every new batch, the evaluation process is informed to the students & also communicated through a student's handbook.
- At the time of joining of new faculty members, Faculty handbook is given for the orientation purpose wherein the faculties are informed well in advance of the self-appraisal report including student's feedback.
- At the end of every term, feedbacks are collected from the students.

For MCA course, the entire examination procedure, evaluation system, question paper pattern, ATKT rule are decided by University and are meticulously followed by the College.

- Students: The stakeholders of the institution are made aware of the evaluation processes through the examination Notice Board.

The Credit Based Semester and Grading System was introduced by the University of Mumbai from the academic year 2011-2012. Students of first year classes are given information about the examination system by Faculty in charge and MCA coordinator in the induction program.

Sample questions and model answer are discussed with the students to prepare them for the examination. The question paper sets of the previous examination are made available to students for reference in the MCA Library.

- Teachers: Whenever the pattern of examination is modified, the faculty members are informed about it through a meeting conducted by the MCA coordinator. The teachers also attend workshops on revised syllabi, discuss about the evaluation pattern and process. The MCA Co-coordinators of various colleges under Mumbai University are connected through a group on WhatsApp to share information. Some teachers are Chairperson for their subjects at the University examination.

2.5.2 What are the major evaluation reforms of the university that the institution has adopted and what are the reforms initiated by the institution on its own?

Simultaneously in addition the faculty is also supported by E-journal database like EBSCO, J-gate to enable the faculty as well as students for teaching as well as learning.

YCOM cultivates critical thinking, creativity and scientific temper among the students in many ways.

In YCOM almost all events are ideated and organized by students with faculty support. Students are empowered to manage induction program for new batch, Diwali dhamaka, Annual festival 'Lakshya' from theme creation to execution. Students use lots of creative and innovative ideas to bring grand success to such events.

Also YCOM newsletter is managed by students where they get an opportunity to apply their creativity.

YCOM has always encouraged students to participate in various competitions, seminars, workshops; events pan India to become competitive.

YCOM provides faculty with the latest technology facility for effective learning.

34. Participation in Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) and Extension activities

Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR)

FEEMA- The social initiative of YCOM, a specially designed one week long free intensive coaching for MBA/MMS/ CET/CMAT, aptly named FEEMA (Free Entrance Empowerment for Management Aptitude) The programme has been conceived as a nonprofit, Institutional social responsibility, keeping in mind its objective to provide free preparatory orientation to those MBA aspirants who cannot afford to enroll into expensive coaching and therefore drop the idea of pursuing their dream of studying management. Feema has created a platform for student to learn aptitude and Logical reasoning.

- Blood donation camp (Rotary club Kharghar Blood Bank)

Extension Activities

- The outreach programs are planned by ISR Committee faculty in charge
- With an attitude of caring and sharing the ISR programs students is funded through students and faculty donations and the fund raising activities like painted Diyas during Diwali etc. The donation is planned and executed by the ISR Committee members. 'caring and sharing' students are encouraged to face ground realities of the world, sensitizing them to the simple life of the needy lead, helps them to appreciate life in a much better way and sows the seed to open their hearts.
- This then helps them in three (3) ways: First, it helps them recognize and build their confidence that they are and will be tomorrow's leaders at organizations they join.
- Second it helps them change their own beliefs and mindsets to rethink about the meaning of success by inculcating daily actions and interactions of citizenship behaviors and management skills simultaneously.
- Last Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is an important component of responsible organizations and, there are many well-known corporate who have well designed volunteer programs for their personnel as a part of their Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiatives. When our students join such companies with their student life experiences would be at the fore front to volunteer and bring change.
- Ultimately our student would enrich their life and life of others around them for the better and they would be able to live a value-based life and be sensitive to the world around them to make this world a better place.
